

No Motiv, 924

On a mission north on the 101 to a place guaranteed to have a lot of fun a place right by the GoldenGate this trip is one that we won't forget we made San Francisco Bay we drove to this thing was a brand new thing for them aswell as you can tell from a band sixty miles north of hell now we're in the land of 924 gilman's street berkely kids a punk rock scene we would finely meet four songs quick into our set one or two claps is all we'd get followed by "go home you new school punkers suck!" (hey man, you play guitar pretty good) not exactly passed with flying colors we gave the berkely scene our best try and left with a big fat fucking slice of humble pie and now we know why [x7] 924!