

No Motiv, Believe

Why do I hide with me my beliefs I ponder to myself you take away from me sometimes the pride I hold inside myself why didn't you believe in me why didn't you understand the problems that I had why didn't you not see through me why didn't you understand how I felt inside you take away from me my heart and self esteem this loss of heart has made me see that I could never be the man I wanna be
