

No Motiv, Brand New Day

I heard you're listening
You're writing off all of us today
Once inviting
You're trying to push us away
Don't try and play the innocent guy
And then say hi to me
'Cause I can see right through it all

And it's a brand new day
And you're in my way
I made a big mistake
Trusting so easily

Now awaiting
You're taking advantage of your own
Friends who trusted
Disgusted by your actions alone
Now you try and bite the hand
That feeds your insincerity
Now your own greed
Is the only thing that you can see

And it's a brand new dy
And you're in my way
I made a big mistake trusting so easily
And if you think that I am gonna stand aside
You've got a big surprise thinking I'll fall in line
I won't fall in line

Now you're wasted
You're making it all come down to this
Taking all of you're proud of
And then selling out to it
