

No Motiv, Into The Darkness

Floating up
I'm floating high up Far into the stars, below
I feel it beneath me, giving way Earth below
I feel around me Echoes of the world, dissolved this feels like a dream now, then it comes and it feels so real And then life

darkness pulls me away
I'm falling into nowhere
I can't see anything
I want it, I want it over now
death comes knocking again
I'm falling into darkness
I can't feel anything
I guess it, I guess it's over now

high you're now I'm high above the stars light years away, alone this must be a dream now, to the field terrified
I'm falling fast now, into the abyss, the void has called me into, somewhere else and it knows my name then my soul slips away

darkness pulls me away
I'm falling into nowhere
I can't see anything
death comes knocking again
I'm falling into darkness
I can't feel anything
I guess it, I guess it's over now (now) falling into nothing feel my soul is slipping...away

darkness pulls me away
I'm falling into nowhere
I can't see anything
I'm falling into darkness
I can't feel anything
I guess it, I guess it's over now
I guess it's over now
