

No Motiv, Let It Go

I can't cry for the whole world or make it be the way it should I can't believe the things I've seen it's not with or without a face it could be the latest craze there has to be someone to say that it's not ok
And I finally realize it hits me right between the eyes and I have to let go And then the sun begins to shine and I have no more tears to cry Then I can sleep it all away I turned the TV on today it made me stop and turn to say
"Are all these people here for real?"
They reach down into our lives then leave us hanging out to dry I just can't take another day make them go away you've got to let it all go
