

No Motiv, So Long

Leaving behind the worst my ship sets sail today
Heads up here come the words
I have now to say
Just trying to make the best of a good time
I 'm taking control of my life
So long, so long:
I don't belong
I'm leaving right now and not coming back Too long, too long: been dragging it on I've got to stay sane on the right track Miserable everyday
I finally saw the light
I'm going all the way the feeling is so right Just maybe on my own I can find out right now what life is all about So get on the right track
