

No Motiv, Tribute

I feel so far away
And so unclose to you
He feels just as I
Just the same as I do too
Born into a world where consequences take their toll on us why me?
what for?
what did we ever do
to deserve such cruelty to me?
our mother loves us only as a responsibility
is this what you call a dysfunctional family?
Why are we insignificant
And less important to mommy
Than others are to you?
Forced maturity we're left alone with nothing but ourselves
why me?
what for?
what did we ever do
to deserve such cruelty to me?
our mother loves us only as a responsibility
is this what you call a dysfunctional family?
