

No Use For A Name, Lies Can't Pretend

I received your letter in the mail
Sounds like times are hard for you again
You said that you'd be nineteen in september of this year
And you're breaking up with your girlfriend
"My dad and I got in a fight, he told me to leave" when everything was fine
There isn't much that I can do to help you yes it's true
But I promise that the hurt will heal in time...
And you don't deserve this

Lies can't pretend
Just another way of thinking
That people can change when it seems
They're not there for you
Truth cannot lie
Never heard a better word than trust
Yes it's in you know that it's true and right

Let me count the ways that I feel so sorry
When it rains it drains the spirit dry
We all have our mishaps, misfortune, missed opportunities
And the strenght to carry on consider yourself free
And you don't deserve this (three, two, one)

Lies can't pretend
Just another way of thinking
That people can change when it seems
They're not there for you
Truth cannot lie
Never heard a better word than trust
Yes it's in you know that it's true and right
