No Use For A Name, Room 19

it's been so long since you've been here and I'm dying... is there something you would like to say?

just drop the present on the shelf by the flowers and make the feeling go away...

looking back I can't recall who was listening when I used to walk the streets at night...

like a bird that used to sing I was flying I was happy all the time and it's hard to look back...

better days and different ways I can't explain another song to sing it all was simplified...

don't know now what it's about what have I learned to live without? it takes a day to live a life...

I can't believe the way the world is so different... look what the lines in my face have made living in my bed I'm right next to the road the one that goes the other way... takes me to a different place did you know that I was just as young as you I had a job, a home, a family, and a car did you say that yesterday or just right now? you'll never know the feeling of my bleeding heart...
