

No Use For A Name, Thorn In My Side

Remember these words

"I'll never let you down" "You are my friend and you can talk to me"

so why am I? (so why am I?) still standing all alone

that's not the way that it's supposed to be

Chorus:

Thorn in my side

talk about me, kiss my ass

thorn in my side

I felt it jabbing the first time that you lied deep inside

You gave me silence,

I tried to talk to you

I got denied and tried to think it through you had no reason, I saw no warning sign you think I'll stick around, you must be on glue

Chorus

So now I'm thinking, you'll turn your back on me the second you find a better place to be it's in our nature to hurt each other

I'll never find my place in this world of greed
