

No Warning, Back To Life

Bloody and might,
they've sent me here to die
My arm is twitching, see the picture of an eye,
My words are coming out,
I feel like coming out,
I'm only talking to you,
No more questions now,

In between,
Loud and clear,
Exceptional,
Get me wrong,

Let it out,
Try to bow,
Where am I this time?

And what am I
To think in size
No matter what I feel inside
Cause you're into the water
And you go without a fight,
Back to life!

I'm coming back from the cell of the fear
Those who could fly show some wishes in my ear
Cold, sighing voices
The ghosts, left me new choices
The ghosts,
That was me gathering a colourfull of phony dancers

Fades away,
I contain,
No more wait,
It's about to jump back,

I rebel,
Find new peace,
Theres waiting,
wait far

And what am I,
To think in size
No matter what I feel inside,
Cause you're into the water,
And you go without a fight,
Back to life!
When nothings right,
There's no way things stop tonight,
Cause you're dancing to look at,
To give back your life,
Back to life!

They called me down!
Theres a full attack!
I turned around!
And completely fast!
Must!
Find a way to break out,
Fights is unforgiving,
Must!
Find a way to break out,

This must not forsee me

Camaflouge!

And what am I,
To think in size
No matter what I feel inside,
Cause you're into the water,
And you go without a fight,
Back to life!
When nothings right,
There's no way things stop tonight,
Cause you're dancing to look at,
To give back your life,
Back to life!

Back to life!
