Translation:

now its gone
now its passed
on the edge of a dream we linger..
how
the sands of time
have slipped between my fingers

now its gone
now its passed
forever, it appears..
a circle
that's been closed
and I'm still alive, still here

we shall meet
and see each other
for a loving heart can not go wrong
like rivers to the sea
we flow, we stream
strive till we arrive
to touch the dream.
