

Noah Cyrus, We Are... (ft. MØ)

my life is great
I write than hit update I turn you on wanna belong
so I go to the mall and I buy it all

thank god is the weekend
got time, we can waste it so we drive to the sunset the fire we live in a bubble pretending it's cause we are young

(we are fucked)
these days we only follow these days we feeling hollow
get paid, the only motto
(we are fucked)
that day it all gets better they say it won't last forever
then someone pull the trigger (we are fucked)

the fame, the fame
I want to hear my name and I don't care what for I'll change the world save all this trees and birds but first I'll grab a Starbucks then I'll get to work

we live in a bubble pretending
it's cause we are young

(we are fucked)
(we are fucked)
then someone pull the trigger (we are fucked)

we've got hearts in the right places but we're still a danger to ourselves maybe it's cause we are young thank got it's weekend should we drive to the sunset or the fire?

(we are fucked)
(we are fucked)
then someone pull the trigger (we are fucked)
