

Nocturnal Breed, Revelation 666

The harvest has come
The beast in the center
Awakens in eternal chains
Oh... His children swarms as flies around him
The path to heaven are given to them
To conquer and destroy... Old ways

We shall no longer be seized
We are the seeds of ancient serpents
We are the children of devils
Your beloved heaven... Will fall

The mighty Origo strengthens
The eternal chained ones
Watching his seeds
Return to his nerves
Origo in the throne
Is the reason for this kingdom

We shall no longer be seized
We are the seeds of ancient serpents
We are the children of devils
Your beloved heaven... Shall fall

With bleeding eyes ' The lords and the beast
And the elders of cosmos ' Surrounds his feet
They attack their harps ' With razor nails
And rivers erupts ' As veins from his seat

"Oh... Can you see his fuckin' veins"

We shall no longer be seized
We are the seeds of ancient serpents
We are the children of devils
Your beloved heaven... Shall fall
