Nocturnal Rites, Burn In Hell

I'm a loser, it's tearing me apart But I've got some news, I'm not going down this time Wake up your fools 'cause you don't stand a chance If I stand or fall, I'll rise no matter what

Doomsday's bells (Doomsday's bells) Hear the prophe's word You're a liar and a thief, by my hands I'll make you kneel

Burn in hell, Burn in hell By my hands I'll make you kneel

Choke on the pieces of your past Nowhere to run, the luck will take it's turn

Doomsday's bells (Doomsday's bells) Hear the prophe's word You're a liar and a thief, by my hands I'll make you kneel

Burn in hell, Burn in hell By my rage and fury fall

Wake up, you fools don't stand a chance If I should fall I'll rise again.
