

Noelle, I Already Know

I can't believe it
Accusing me?
You might wanna look at yourself
Cause I already know

It's funny how you see things
So quick to point the finger at me
I know I'm not the only one
To hear that you've been doing wrong
You're not slick at all

(Chorus:)
I already know
You've been playing me
Cheating on the low
But my heart can't take it anymore
It's been hurting me but I won't let it show
Ohh baby I already know (know knooww)

I'm not saying that I'm right
I'm not saying I'm innocent, oh no
Don't go acting like it's me
But you've been doing the same thing
I just haven't said nothing 'cause

(Chorus:)
I already know (I already know)
You've been playing me
Cheating on the low (cheating on the low)
But my heart can't take it anymore (take it anymore)
And it's been hurting me but I won't let it show (I won't let it show)
Ohh baby (I already know) I already know

It just hasn't been me
It also has been you
I kept it to myself
Cause I already know
Now that I realize
We've both been telling lies
It's staying with you right
I don't know

And it feels like (and it feels like I just lost you) I've lost you
On the inside (on the inside I am so through) I'm so through
Is it too late (is it too late should we give up) should we give up
Cause the truth is (cause the truth is there is no trust) there's no trust

I al-ready know
I al-ready know babe
I al-ready know
I al-ready know babe
I al-ready know
I al-ready know babe
I al-ready know
I al-ready know babe

(Chorus x3)

Now what...
