

Noise Pollution, Nobody else

Walk around, searching for something?
Maybe I can find it today.
Then I look down inside.
So I open my eyes and I know it's the only way.
Gotta have it
Gotta want it
Gotta love it
Gotta feel it
It is something that you can't hide
So take the little key, check the corner of your beat
Turning up the feeling inside
If you can't see..
What should be..
Tell you one thing..

refrein:

It's gotta be something you want
Something you feeling
Don't let anyone stop you from dreaming
I do what I want 'cause I see
Nobody else can be me
Something you want
Something that'll change you
If you fall, don't worry I'll save you
I do what I want 'cause I see
Nobody else can be me
Whoaah, whoaah, whooh
Sit down, take some time to look around
Don't let it pass you by It's right behind you
If you listen it'll find you
No need even ask why
And I was one step in your shoes
Living has changed my life
Gotta have it
There's no way that they can stop you Listen and I'll tell you why

refrein2:

If you can see..
What should be..
Tell you one thing..

You were searching for something
Thinking that you found today
Something made you strong
Now you never go wrong
If you listen when you hear me sing sing...
