

Noise Ratchet, Friction Arms

Dreaming in a nightmare, a dream you beg of me to lay you down to sleep
And your reality is lifeless when you wake to me
Leave it alone, take your hands off of my body
Cause no one can save you from you
So I wake you from this nightmare, a fairytale of me to break you from this dream
And your reality is lifeless, when you wake to me
One day these arms will comfort no more
One night I leave sparkles in your eyes
And you'll leave this crush and dream of me no more
