

Noise Unit, Paranoid

The games you play
the things you say
It never really meant that much anyway I just want to fuck you

It was doomed from the start torn apart
why does it make any difference I just dont trust you

from time to time
'd kiss you again
looked across the table
then I?
I just dont trust you

i watch you day and night turned away
can't ... you (can seem to help you)
I just don't trust you

I look into your eyes
i sympathize (soon decide?)
... people demise its no surprise
I just don't trust you

...
light my fire
dying... within
I just don't trust you

I just don't trust you

Tell me
what can you find
in a dream
(i don't believe it)

tell me what do you see (in a jealous sky)
with no beginning

tell me
how does it feel
when you blow me up
now you've gone deceiving

doomed from the start
torn apart
why does it make any difference
I just dont trust you

The games you play
the things you say
I just dont trust you

It was doomed from the start
torn apart
I just dont trust you

from time to time
'd kiss you again
looked across the table
I just dont trust you

from time to time
i'd kiss you again
I just dont trust you

Tell me
what can you find
in a dream
(i don't believe it)

tell me what do you see (in a jealous sky)
with no beginning
