

Noisettes, That Girl

I don't wanna to talk,
Don't wanna hear about the things that she said
Running round in my head
And I don't wanna know about her favourite magazines that she keeps,
About her blogs and her tweets

I'll tell you something, it ain't no mystery
How your new best friend looks in your eyes?

Cause,
That girl's in love with you
That girl's in love with you
I know that you're too blind to see
I know that it's so plain to see
That girl's in love with you
So madly

I don't want to speak if you're not coming home
I'll be down the street,
I'd rather dance to the beat
And I don't want to cure your hangover
'Cause we never did shots
You were with her until four
I don't mind company
Well not officially
But when she sits next to you
You don't realise

That girl's in love with you
That girl's in love with you
I know that you're too blind to see
I know that it's so plain to see
That girl's in love with you
So madly

(That girl's in love with you)
That girl's in love with you
(That girl's in love with you)
That girl's in love with you
That girl

I know that you're too blind to see
I know that it's so plain to see

That girl's in love with you

I'm just a so-and-so
A lucky so-and-so
I do what I do 'cause
I'm mad for you!
But just a peek at you
And I can see that you're delirious, so seriously

(Honestly)

[Dan Smith:]
If I was playing, baby, you'd be sorry

[Shingai Shoniwa:]
Baby end of story
That girl's in love with you
That girl's in love with you
I know that you're too blind to see
I know that it's so plain to me

That girl's in love with you
(That girl's in love with you)
That girl's in love with you
(That girl's in love with you)
I know that you're too blind to see
I know that it's too plain to see
That girl's in love with you
That girl's in love
That girl's in love
That girl's in love with you
So bad
