

Noisettes, Winner

The eagle has landed
The butterfly is out of her cocoon
It ain't like I planned it
But lately I'm shining like the moon
I tell you something about turning doors
Too many questions will kill the surprise
After tonight there'll be no alibis
I'll be the apple of your eye

I feel like a winner
I feel like the world is in my hands
I feel like a winner
I got the world at my feet
I can dance to the beat of my song

Emancipation
I don't need your key to set me free
Rise to the occasion, yeah
Life gives a hand just wait and see (Just wait and see)
And while you're waiting for the world to change
I'll be your light as before the dawn
I'll be the star that you wish upon
I'll be the song a man should carry on

I feel like a winner
I feel like the world is in my hands
I feel like a winner
I got the world at my feet
I can dance to the beat of my song

I feel like a winner
I feel like the world is in my hands
I feel like a winner
I got the world at my feet
I can dance to the beat of my song

Shine like the morning sun
Everybody, everyone
Shine like the morning sun
Everybody, everyone

I feel like a winner
I feel like the world is in my hands
I feel like a winner
'Cause I got the world at my feet
I can dance to the beat of my song

Because I feel like a winner
I feel like the world is in my hands
I feel like a winner
I got the world at my feet
I can dance to the beat of my song
