

NoKTuRNL, New Era

My fever is the flavour of a new era
When the world can see and hear much clearer
This song got my feelings on a whip now
It lifts me up and it can't bring you down

There is a new time coming and
I'll get there first 'cause I'm running man
I'll always know 'cause I've seen
The places I'm going and where I've been
There's no time for us to do the run-around
This time the sky is really coming down
It's never the end and you'll see
There's nothing you're doing that can affect me

In this world there's a reason for everything
There's a lesson to learn from many things
It's always a struggle to be free
I keep it real but that's just me
Gotta show, gotta know, gotta give it a go
'cause you know that I never live my life slow
when you grow to the powerful force of my soul
Yeah, yeah, yeah yeah yeah

In the future with our minds are smashing down walls
Toward fate from the mothership our species crawls
There's only one other way to keep it alive
If there's something in our mix that makes us survive

There is a new time coming and
I'll get there first 'cause I'm running man
I'll always know 'cause I've seen
The places I'm going and where I've been
There's no time for us to do the run-around
This time the sky is really coming down
It's never the end and you'll see
There's nothing you're doing that can affect me

In this world there's a reason for everything
There's a lesson to learn from many things

I keep it real but that's just me
Gotta show, gotta know, gotta give it a go
'cause you know that I never live my life slow
when you grow to the powerful force of my soul
Yeah, yeah, yeah yeah yeah
