

Nomy, Freakshow Part 2

Incredible creations of our human race Take with you a friend or foe welcome to my freakshow One two three what you really wanna see Is People in parades killing what they wanna be One two three do you really wanna join me Down to the freakshow down to the freak show Insane
They call it insane Whats inside of me humanity in agony
They scream
as soon as im alone
They scream
of What have I become Im alone when Im awake
But I close my eyes to make Myself breath another night Welcome to my daily show pick a freak and they will let you know How I am
Welcome to this missary you can stay I you would like to be A part of me
My own freakshow
I can see that I am all alone if cant leave memories behind me Lost in my madness of you shattred by my jealousy This is my live now stuck to be someone Im not all I know is my own past and I know that nothing last Was pain your only promises
And the story continues in silence:
Every past condition now I feel your pain now I live your sorrow were the ones to blame Will you take this message with you its implanted in your head Maybe you begin to make us rise again
It is you and it is me were strong but were not free Now Ive seen your dream a new age well redeem Tried to pull us through the sky will not end before I die Ill carry you along til we are born as one
It is not to late
we need to make a change
we need to take a stand its time for you to see this I will prove them wrong Love is in my heart in my pain and in my song
