

Nomy, Go now

Separate them confrontate them
You could laugh but please dont hate them
Let them grow up let them stay dont let shadows stand in your way and all the things they have done sentence for everyone and they all will fall as one
So stand next to me How can they ever be What you are
So go now just walk away
Just leave them here to stay
So go now and let them be
Come join this side with me
Dont feel anger dont feel shame
In the end they'll burn in your name Stand beside them in the wind they are dust that clings to your skinn
If all what they say is true
I wouldn't care for you
But that is all I do
So hold on to me They are not what you will be
So go now just walk away
Just leave them here to stay
So go now and let them be
Come join this side with me
So go now just walk away
Just leave them here to stay
For all what they've done
Go now
For all what they've done
For all what they are
Go now
When the time you lost is yours and when you claim it all by force
Thats when you stand up straight
Thats when you stand up straight
For the pain they caused before
That gave you so much more
That is when you stand up straight
So breath so live judgement is not yours to give So join this side with me and let them fall as one
So walk away And everything will be gone so join me now
