

None More Black, I'll Buy You The Fucking Single

I don't know what to do with myself when I'm down.
Patience is paper thin, it draws blood when I'm down.
Oh Doctor, Doctor!
Tell me what I should do to win.
Tell me how it ends and I'll show you how it begins.
Doctor, Doctor!
We should meet real soon.
Please patch me up with the best thread you've got and we'll be through.
I don't know what to do with myself when I'm crowned.
Attention will shut me up.
Then later, will shut me out.
