Nonpoint, Everybody Down

When I drop you, I'm gonna stomp you
Pick you up again and then drop you
Lift my foot again and then stomp you
Then grind
And when I stomp you
That'll be the end of you
That'll be it
That'll be the end of you
Time to jump ship
Cause I'm a psycho and I'm crazy
And If you're too close you're gonna get hit

Everybody down
Everybody down
I'm coming around, coming around, coming around
Everybody down
Everybody down
I need every single person right now on the ground

Everybody down
Everybody down
I'm coming around, coming around, coming around
Everybody down
Everybody down
I need every single person right now on the ground

Now that I got you
right where I want you
I'm gonna twist you up and tie you up and knot you
Break you, so that it takes you
6 months to recuperate you
Oh, that's the end of you
That's it
That's the end of you
Time to jump ship
Cause I'm a psycho and I'm crazy
And If you're too close you're gonna get hit

Everybody down
Everybody down
I'm coming around, coming around, coming around
Everybody down
Everybody down
I need every single person right now on the ground

Everybody down
Everybody down
I'm coming around, coming around, coming around
Everybody down
Everybody down
I need every single person right now on the ground

Everybody
Everybody
Everybody
Everybody
Everybody (Everybody down)
Everybody (Everybody down)
Everybody down
Everybody down

Everybody

Everybody (down)
Everybody
Everybody (down)
Everybody
Everybody (down)
Everybody down
Everybody down

Everybody
Everybody (down)
Everybody
Everybody
Everybody
Everybody (down)
Everybody down
Everybody down

Everybody down
Everybody down
I'm coming around, coming around, coming around
Everybody down
Everybody down
I need every single person right now on the ground

Everybody down
Everybody down
I'm coming around, coming around, coming around
Everybody down
Everybody down
I need every single person right now on the ground
