Nonpoint, Years

Funny feeling my guts intuition doesn't know

No bravery could convince you

To more or less say no

Your explanation hasn't gone over yet

But I'll give you one more chance

To open up and just let go

There's no easier way out of this place I'm claiming this lie to you face to face to face to

That's no way for you to treat me my dear

Someone you chose to lie to all these years

There is no other title that I can find for us

Even though you can believe that this could

Work and bleed and breathe and be for us

Your interpretation of my expectations

Caught up in your picture frame

Have defined my eyes and made me turn up down and inside

There's no easier way out of this place

I'm claiming this lie to you face to face to

That's no way for you to treat me my dear

Someone you chose to lie to all these years

It's gonna take a lot to get you to completely

Forgive me for letting you down I'm not exactly what I really was back then

Played along for so long

Then you saw what I really was I was wrong for so long

What do I do with my other type of slum life

So on to you delight

For the rest of the night I'm yours

Whatever you want

From every pore I give you my life
