

Norah Jones, Can You Believe

Can you believe?
Can you believe?
Can you believe?

Do you hear me speaking?
Your name is rolling off my tongue
Can you hear the whispering?
The shame is not what I'll become

Can you believe?
Can you believe?
Can you believe?

Sometimes when I'm cryin'
A diamond falls into my heart
When my eyes are dryin'
You come rip 'em all apart

Can you believe?
Can you believe?
Can you believe?

Tell me you can hear me
Tell me I'm not alone
In this whole world
Can there be someone who I can call
Call my own?

Come and take me higher
Than I could ever climb alone
Set my world on fire
And met this frozen piece of snow

Can you believe?
Can you believe?
Can you believe?
Can you believe?
Can you believe?
Can you believe?
Can you believe?
Can you believe?
