

Norma Jean, Always A Bridesmaid

One by one my friends are gettin' marriage one by one I watch them pass me by
And man that played here comes away I rush outside and cry
What a happy couple to be you and I
Always a bridesmaid but never a bride smiling and talking and crying inside
I tried to forget you oh Lord how I tried
Always a bridesmaid but never a bride
(steel)
I've had lots of time to find another since that day you walked out of my life
But I gave all my love to you I can't love someone new
And without love I'd be no quite a wife
Always a bridesmaid...
