

Norma Jean, Anita You're Dreaming

Anita come closer stop crying and listen to me
I guess it's too late now but somehow I must make you see
What you thought was our world was only a dream world
And you just can't go on like this
Anita you're dreaming of a world that can never exist

Anita it's over there's nothing that's left now to say
Anita you're dreaming and we know it's better this way
[ac.guitar]
Anita come closer and dry your pretty blue eyes
Your young dreams just can't be and somehow you must realize
For I know you love him but longer I've loved him and I'm who's waiting alone
Anita you're dreaming and when you will awake you'll be home
Anita it's over there's nothing that's left now to say...
