

Norma Jean, Don't Put Your Hurt In My Heart

Don't put your hurt in my heart stop what you're planning before you start
Yes I loved you once it's true but now I'm over you don't put your hurt in my heart
Don't put your burning in my eyes cause the burning only stops when I cry
Once my teardrops fell like rain washed away the burning flame
And it washed all your hurt from my heart

[ steel ]

Don't put your sorry in my mind cause it's useless and you're only wastin' time
I got over you before I can't chance it anymore don't put your hurt in my heart
Don't put your hurt in my heart
