

Norma Jean, Three Ways (To Love You)

There are three ways three ways three ways to love you it's true
One is the wrong way one is the right way but the best is the way I love you

One is the wrong way like some people do
They're kissin' they're lyin' they'll never be true
But soon they will wonder why love flies away
And all had their cryin' they'll find out some day
There are three ways...

(el.banjo - fiddle)

One is the right way so some people say with dinin' and dancin' in some cabarete
Now some girls may think this is really ideal
But too late they'll find out that love isn't real
There are three ways...

One is the best way the way I love you
With all of my heart and for all my life through
I think of you only forget all the rest I'll show you my darling that my way it's best
There are three ways...
