

Norma Jean, What More Can I Do

Lord what more can I do you've do so much for me
I'll speak your name every hour and help the blind to see
You've given me a voice and it will praise your name
And as long as you give me strenght I'll help the men
But once the devil have been bondaged help me set them free
Lord what more can I do you've do so much for me
You've given me your love and someone else's too
And I know you'll be true as I am to you
With over clouds these eyes God let me see
Lord what more can I do you've do so much for me
Lord what more can I do you've do so much for me
I'll speak your name every hour and help the blind to see
The things you gave me I will use them well
Give me strenght don't let Satan pull me into hell
Give me just enough life to be what you want me to be
Lord what more can I do you've do so much for me
Lord what more can I do you've do so much for me
I'll speak your name every hour and help the blind to see
