

Norther, My Antichrist

Deeper I should look,
Deeper I will have to see
What lies there, what is real

Deep underneath, so far it's hard to see
A ghost, I'm fucking sure,
'Cause it's either you or me
The legacy remains, year after year
And every day's a sickness pumping out
Messengers of illness everywhere I see,
We are the ones, you and me

No one wants to see the truth we don't believe
No one wants to see the Antichrist in me
No one wants to see the truth we don't believe
No one wants to see the Antichrist in you and me

Deeper you should look,
Deeper you'll have to see
What lies there, what is real

Deep underneath, so far it's hard to see
A ghost, I'm fucking sure,
'Cause it's either you or me
The legacy remains, year after year
And every day's a sickness pumping out
Messengers of illness everywhere I see,
We are the ones, you and me

(Kride's & Petri's solo)

No one wants to see the truth we don't believe
No one wants to see the Antichrist in me
No one wants to see the truth we don't believe
No one wants to see the Antichrist in you and me
