

Norther, Throwing My Life Away

I've been destroyed by the perfection that is you
Telling me your lies, think you can fool me too
Fuck you! I'm leaving soon

Why the hell should I stay, getting nowhere day by day
Can't stand what you say, throwing my life away

Dead as a dead can be, screaming the pain away, that you spread to me
Another dead day with you, I see, you have turned to my perfect enemy

Why the hell should I stay, getting nowhere day by day
Can't stand what you say, throwing my life away
Why the hell do I stay, falling further down day by day
This is more than I can take, throwing my life away

[Solo: P. Lindroos]

[Solo: K. Ranta]

Throwing my life away, no way I won't stay
Throwing my life away, can't stand your fucking ways
Throwing my life away, you fucking disappoint me
Throwing my life away, throwing my life away
