

Not without grace, Hide away

My eyes are so blue I can't see you
As you're closing the door once again
With seasons you came And swept me away
But you turned into fall into rain
You left me behind As you took me away
Now I'm stuck here alone with my thoughts
These words seem so cold
I can't hide away
The pain that you gave me when you walked away
And you left me with days that you gave
Can't hide away
As it echoes from places you've been
Can't hide away
The silence inside Is stained by your voice
When you told me that you had no choice
The sadness within Makes me angry and numb
I can still feel the taste of your tongue
And you left me with days that you gave
Can't hide away
As it echoes from places you've been
Can't hide away
Since you left me my thoughts been with you
Can't hide away
Unable to find what I used to be like
Can't run away
