

Not without grace, Someday

Is it the safety
That keeps you on the line
Is that everything you are
No more lying
No more turning to the walls
That's not what I want to be
So fly away with me
Someday I will find you
You won't walk away from me
And I will be better
Chasing somebody's dream
I've heard the sun drowned
While lighting up the sky
Shattered like broken glass
We pick up the pieces
Reforged in something new
Shing for someone else
Someday I will find you...
I'll follow you
You'll follow me
We'll run forever
No one will be
Aware of us
Of you and me
Let's run forever
No one will see
Someday I will find you...
Someday
Someday
Someday
