

Notis Sfakianakis, Alcoholic Love

(Music: Spyros Papavasiliou, Lyrics: Zoi Gripari)

Four wrinkled years in the corner
You threw them and you said it's all over for me
Why are you asking me now that dawn finds me
In arms with bleeding illegal kisses

I am asking you to let go do not insist
We are finished don't you understand it
I am asking you to let go do not insist
You are an alcoholic love and you scare me

Another night finds me alone again
And whisky is running down my veins
Your memory wherever it touches me it hurts
And I feel the ground does not hold me tonight
