

Nouveau Riche, Save Me

Lift me when you're sinking
Love me when you're high and drinking
Fuck me when you're tired of thinking
Leave me in your shadow blinking
Back tears blindly
You know you can always find me
Right Here
You're not special
You're convenient
You remind me of the fact
I don't really like myself
I'm in love with you just to spite myself
Sugar you're going down and I'd like to help
But I'm already on the ground and I can't save myself

Come On Baby. . I want you to save me. . I'll be right here.

Bleed me when you're thirsty
Feed my ego crown me curse me
Hold me long enough to hurt me
I'm sick to want you cure me
And if the cure don't kill me
Call me up you know I'll still be
Right Here
I'm not stupid
I'm just broken damaged you fulfill a need
Of something real something I can trust
I'd rather know you don't want me than believe someone does and be wrong
You're self-destructive and it's turning me on
I do it too
I'm using you so baby come on
