

NRG, Arm In Arm

When Im exhausted, and when Im lonely,
Theres a person that I think of constantly
On days of tears, theres a person that wordlessly stays with me
Just more than I need
Just more than I love you forever
Always, just like now
I'll give you my heart
I'll give you my love you forever
Hope you'll always remember, till always...
The tears of hard times lessen because you are here
If Im with you in this hard world, Im confident against anything in the world
Just more than I need
Just more than I love you forever
Always, just like now
I'll give you my heart
I'll give you my love you forever
Hope you'll always remember, till always...
I think you're a really good friend
But its so hard to tell you this
We dont have to pretend that we need each other that much
Im drunk on this late night, and after I say the words that I wanted to say so much,
I act drunk and crazy while you laugh and comfort me
Im so thankful to you right now
When I think of having a drink at night
I drink anything and stay up the whole long night
But Im so happy at the moment, because I have a perfect friend
Hardships of love, pain and misery, or anything at all,
You always find me and is with me
So Im not afraid of the world anymore
When time passes, we will probably change a little
But I hope we preciously keep the memories that we made before
Just more than I need
Just more than I love you forever
Always, just like now
I'll give you my heart
I'll give you my love you forever
Hope you'll always remember, till always... (2x)
Till always.....
