

NRG, Forgive

Because of such lies
Have you given me your tears as a gift?
Was it because you trusted me
I'll save the words of saying sorry
Because I love you so much
I only want to say you're the only one
I need you baby
(You're my angel) Even my soul
(You're my everything) Always we pray together
You are my tears I'm thankful for loving you
I want let you go baby
That there is another love
Already love that has ended
Even when I have no words to say, its like that I won't ask for forgiveness
Because you might get hurt
I only want to say that I love only you
I want you baby
(You're my angel) Even my soul
(You're my everything) Always we pray together
You are my tears I'm thankful for love you
I want let you go baby
rap] Saying that you'll leave, that you'll just throw me away
But I haven't been able to hold onto you but my heart hurts that I can't be patient
So only tears will fall Because there is noting I can do
If I have a future or if you even know
If I have have to live this way or just forget about it
(You're my angel) In my heart In my life
(You're my everything) I can get you I don't my heart babe babe come on you were mine you are my soul
(You're my angel) In my heart In my life
(You're my everything) I can get you I don't my hand babe babe come on you were mine here my soul
I want let you go lady
