

NRG, One Day

I can't forget about you today either, i just see the sky just waiting for you, all my senses are rolled up the one who wasn't worried about separation was you the last person was you the one who watched you leave was me *still you, and you, i won't hate you if i could just be with you for even one second only one day, that one day, i won't forget, the memory of loving you before i met you, our inexperienced breakup was a happy parting we were so happy, but now it doesn't matter, you said you would only throw out one thing love is, separation is, I don't wanna say goodbye (I don't wanna say goodbye) if i knew about separation and met you, if i knew about love and met you the ever so missing experience, it was me *repeat look at me, i didn't have a chance to you, to me, that tears came, it was that you didn't have a spot for me separated, loved, remember those memories like those times, like that, if we were together
