

NRG, Run!

Yes everybody Thanks to all of our praises
Already the night is dark
Time overflows and I hold firmly to all my purposes
Take only one thing at a time, and ride the undefeated road
Walking mindlessly from so many tackles, darks circles from my eyes that fall to my jaws
I'll go! go! for any reason, I'll rest for a measure so I can take this shot and go
What are you doing, don't just sit there, stand up!
Don't just take a breath and lets all together sing this song
Forget your worries and toast! toast! It feels great throughout the night
Life is usually tiresome so lets all together sing this song
With victory we'll raise our wineglasses above our heads hurray! hurray!
Don't stagger, thats not allowed, don't overwork yourself, thats never allowed
Someday a good day will come, why?! Because I'm here
Living is agony, making money is tiring, time runs as fast as the speed of light
I still run, when the music plays I dance, and time stops my sense won't be defeated yet, right now, this moment is my last chance Defy that guy no matter what. For me as for now I'll go for one more shot
What are you doing, don't just sit there, stand up!
Don't just take a breath and lets all together sing this song
Forget you worries and toast! toast! It feels this great through out the night
Life is usually tiresome so lets all together sing this song
With victory we'll raise our wineglasses above our heads hurray! hurray!
Don't live envying others, thats not allowed. Don't be so mean thats never allowed
Someday a good day will come, why! Because I'm here
Embracing my impatient heart, I will use all my strength and run to the end
Don't stagger thats not allowed. Don't overwork yourself thats never allowed Someday a good day will come, why?! Because I'm her
