

Numic, Last Apology

I couldn't see all the actions that have made me react to your constantly having little tastes of all these fucking things that put me down when I start to heal

You tried to send your last apology screaming back while I get whatever I need Who's wrong?
you are wrong
It's you

I keep everything inside 'till I can hurt you my intention has no sign

Someone please help me find a way to vent this pain so that I can release.
Cause something in me is breaking when I think of the things you've taken

You tried to send your last apology
screaming back while I get whatever I need Who's wrong?
you are wrong
It's you

I keep everything inside 'till I can hurt you
my intention has no sign

I want you to see my apathy
And now it's gone it's been too long I won't tell If you won't tell ohh you weren't afraid, afraid to condescend me now you're afraid, afraid to condescend me

Who's wrong?

I keep everything inside 'till I can hurt you
my intention has no sign
