

Nuno Bettencourt, Fallen Angels

The devil, he knocks at my door
And I wish he would go away
He comes in and out as he pleases
He bothers me night and day

Would you pardon the pun
But he wants me to come out and play
And if he's leave me alone
Just leave me alone then I'd be okay

Killing your savior is human behavior
Fallen Angels
Love is your oxygen, thin is the air
Fallen angels is the trend this year

The TV smile has convinced me to dial
1-900-SINS
I go to the party and who do I see?
Skin on skin

I fell in love so I figured
The devil would stay away, but like a bird I was free
Till he cut down my tree
Love hath flown away, fly away

Killing your savior is human behavior
Fallen Angels
Love is your oxygen, thin is the air
Fallen angels is the trend this year, ah

I truly, truly love you
Fallen angels, fallen angels
Got to get me some air
Someone get me some air
Fallen angels
Fallen angels is the trend right now
Will someone get me some air?
