

Nuuro, The Walls

I know the reasons why you cry at night
I know the reasons why you lie to me and its all right i forgive you now would you please forgive yourself
I know the reasons why sometimes you glance at night
I know why you feel so insecure but darling let it float away
I know now

I know the reasons why you cry at night
I know the reasons why you look into my eyes and sigh
I know the reasons why you're scared; you're scared
I know the reasons and I'm telling you to let them go
I know, I know, I know
I know, I know, I know

I know the reasons why you laugh and smile
I know the reasons why you take walks...for a while I can help you understand just take my hand

I know the reasons why you laugh and smile
I know the reasons why you take walks...for a while I know the reason why
I know the reason I know

-unf-

I know the reasons why you cry at night
I know the reasons and I'm telling you to let them go
I know the reasons why you lie to me...and I forgive you so could you just please forgive yourself yourself... now let's move on 'cept they're too darn real let's go.
