

Oasis, To Be Someone

To be someone must be a wonderful thing a famous footballer or a roksinger or a big filmstar yes I think that I would like, i would like that that and to be rich and have lots of fans and lots of girls to prove that I'm a man and to be number one and liked by everyone getting drugged up with my trendy friends they really dig me man and i dig them and the money that I spent it is like my fame man it's quickly gone no more swimming in my guitar shaped pool no more reporters at my beck and call no more cocaine it's only ground chalk and no more taxis so we'll have to walk but didn't we have a nice time yeah wasn't it such a nice time didn't we have a nice time i realise i should have stuck to my guns they spit me out just like a bastard son and i lost myself and i know that it was wrong, but it cost me a lot there's no more drinking when the club shuts down i'm out here on my arse with the rest of the clowns i'm really scared without my bodyguard and i'm sitting on my own in my expensive yard but didn't i have a nice time wasn't it such a nice time didn't i have a nice time

wasn't it such a nice time
did i have a nice time?
did i have a nice time?
i can't remember if i had a nice time to be someone must me a wonderful thing ain't that the truth