Eleven, fourteen, seventy-seven a nigga entered

Big lips, popped out placenta

Momma ain't breastfeed, had no pop neither

Pop leaves shit but a name - Obie

Elementary homie that's how it started

In garbage, retarded, gainin that heart

Fuck niggaz, claimin they hard, a nigga come home touched

My motherfuckin momma bangin me harder

"Nigga take your ass out their and fight for tomorrow"

That's what she told me, " little punk, blame that on your father "

So I had no choice, nigga pick up a brick

Split a motherfucker's shit for tryin to fuck with the kid

Get a little older, hair on my dick, now I'm curious

Niggaz on the corner gettin money rockin jewelry

Allowance, nigga that ain't man shit

Cowards, nigga that ain't man shit

I had to prove to myself

How these niggaz same age as me calculatin this wealth

So I got me a clique and niggaz what?

Workin one sixteenth, like "nigga we can clean up"

(Chorus - 2X)

Follow my lifé, homie from start 'til now

Only my motherfuckin momma nigga holds me down

And Lord knows all this shit that I done put her through
