

Oblivion Dust, Erase

I bought a breakdown torn out paper cut heart
To find another rejection
Ever lasting phases
A fake smile to chase some cheap affection
Reduce me to a bad infection
You're guilty of love fraud

The pain inside
Been feeding it for days

And all the time that I never really knew you
You kept me away
Leaving me with time

Got the time but I still feel so dead
Loss of memory shine and I won't miss a thing
I do if I could only get through
I can't feel no better

Show me the petals of love
Show me the petals of love
Erase all the pain in my heart
Show me the petals of love

We're falling down
Just crawling around

Got the time but I still feel so dead
Loss of memory shine and I won't miss a thing
I do if I could only get through
I can't feel no better

Show me the petals of love
