

Obsession Indecent, Fixing A Broken Heart

There was nothing to say the day you left
I just filled a suitcase full of regrets
I hailed a taxi in the rain
Looking for some place to ease the pain, ooh
Then like an answered prayer
I turned around and found you there...

* You really know where to start
Fixing a broken heart
You really know what to do
Your emotional tools can't cure any fool
Whose dreams have fallen apart
Fixing a broken heart...mmm

Ever could understand what you're going through
Must be a plan that led me to you
Cause of the hurt just disappears
Every moment you are near, yeah
Just like an answered prayer
You make the loneliness easy to bear

* repeat

Soon the rain will stop falling baby
Let's forget the past
'cause here we are at last....
